Original creation date: December 2nd, 2021

The Privacy Policy describes how the SIA Neuroart Lab a Latvian limited company, collects, uses, processes, and discloses your information, including personal information, in conjunction with your access to and use of the Neuroart App or Website. This Privacy Policy describes the information we may collect from you or that you may provide when you visit the website www.neuroart.io (the "Website") and our procedures regarding this information. In e-mail, text and other electronic messages between you and this Website. Through mobile and desktop applications you download from this Website, which provide dedicated non-browser-based interaction between you and this Website. When you interact with our advertising and applications on third-party websites and services, if those applications or advertising include links to this Privacy Policy.

This version of Privacy Policy has incorporated elements from the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (General Data Protection Regulation or GDPR) as we act in accordance the personal information processing rules within the European Economic Area (EEA).

When this Privacy Policy mentions "we," "us," or "our," it refers to the respective company SIA Neuroart Lab, providing Neuroart App or Website to the Client, under the specified Terms and Conditions, that is responsible for your information under this Privacy Policy (the "Data Controller").

Pursuant to Art. 4, para 7 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR), 'Data controller' means the natural or legal person that determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data; where the purposes and means of such processing are determined by Union or Member State law, the controller or the specific criteria for its nomination may be provided for by Union or Member State law.

If you see an undefined term in this Privacy Policy (such as "NRT Token", "Neuroart App or Website", etc.), it has the same definition as in our General Terms and Conditions of use to which this Privacy Policy is an inseparable part.

For the purposes of this document, the Neuroart App or Website consists of products, services, content, features, technologies, or functions, and all related websites, applications and services offered to you by us or mobile apps, online platform, official social media platforms, or other online properties through which we provide the Service.

We give utmost importance to the protection of personal data of our customers. In the following Privacy Policy, we inform the Client about the collection, use and processing of your personal data when you apply, register or use NRT Tokens and all functionalities, included in the Service, including our website: Neuroart.io

By using the Website, you consent to the data practices described in this Privacy Policy. On occasion, SIA Neuroart Lab may revise this Privacy Policy to reflect changes in law or our personal data collection and use practices. If material changes are made to this Privacy Policy, the changes will be announced by posting on the site. We will ask for your consent before using your information for any purpose that is not covered in this Privacy Policy.

For the purposes of providing online access to Neuroart App or Website under the General Terms and Conditions of use, the responsible Data Controller is SIA Neuroart Lab.

Neuroart App or Website is designed for personal and business purposes and may be used by individuals or entities. In case you are registering for and/or using the service on behalf of an entity we will treat you as an authorized person and you may be obliged to disclose to us personal data of the legal representatives, the employees, the agents, the beneficial owners or any other third party related to the entity pursuant to the rules described below. You certify that where you have provided information regarding any third person beside yourself, you have received prior consent from that other person to provide their personal information to us.

This Privacy Policy does not apply to information collected by: us offline or through any other means, including on any other website operated by any third party (including our affiliates and subsidiaries); or any third party (including our affiliates and subsidiaries), including through any application or content (including advertising) that may link to or be accessible from or on the Website.

Most mobile devices allow you to control or disable the use of location services for applications in the device's settings menu. We may also collect this information even when you are not using the app if this connection is enabled through your settings or device permissions. The legitimate interests that we pursue with this processing is the identification of location-specific problems (i.e. coverage problems for SMS-sending purposes) and other statistical information, which helps us improve our services.

Usage Information We collect information about your interactions with the Neuroart App or Website such as your usage of any Apps or Functionalities, and other interactions with the Neuroart App or Website. The legitimate interests that we pursue with this processing is a collection of crash reports and other statistical information, which helps us improve our services.

Cookies and Similar Technologies SIA Neuroart Lab does not track its customers over time and across third-party websites to provide targeted advertising and therefore does not respond to Do Not Track (DNT) signals. Third parties that have content embedded on our websites may set cookies on a user's browser and/or obtain information about the fact that a web browser visited a specific Neuroart website from a certain IP address. See your web browser's documentation for information on how to enable DNT signals and learn about other mechanisms that enable consumers to exercise choice about behavioral tracking. The information we collect automatically is statistical data and may include personal information, but we may maintain it or associate it with personal information we collect in other ways or receive from third parties. It helps us to improve our Website and to deliver a better and more personalized service, including by enabling us to: Estimate our audience size and usage patterns.

Cookies. A cookie is a small file placed on the hard drive of your computer. You may refuse to accept browser cookies by activating the appropriate setting on your browser. However, if you select this setting you may be unable to access certain parts of our Website. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse cookies, our system will issue cookies when you direct your browser to our Website.

Web Beacons Pages of our Website and our e-mails may contain small electronic files known as web beacons (also referred to as clear gifs, pixel tags, and single-pixel gifs) that permit the Company, for example, to count users who have visited those pages or opened an e-mail and for other related website statistics (for example, recording the popularity of certain website content and verifying system and server integrity).

Third-party Use of Cookies and Other Tracking Technologies Some content or applications on the Website are served by third-parties, including content providers and application providers. These third-parties may use cookies alone or in conjunction with web beacons or other tracking technologies to collect information about you when you use our website. The information they collect may be associated with your personal information or they may collect information, including personal information, about your online activities over time and across different websites and other online services. They may use this information to provide you with targeted content.

We do not control these third-parties' tracking technologies or how they may be used. If you have any questions about targeted content, you should contact the responsible provider directly.

How We Use Your Information We use information that we collect about you or that you provide to us, including any personal information:

To provide you with information, products, or services that you request from us. To fulfill any other purpose for which you provide it. To provide you with notices about your account. To carry out our obligations and enforce our rights arising from any contracts entered into between you and us, including for billing and collection. Resolve disputes, collect fees, and troubleshoot problems. To notify you about changes to our Website or any products or services we offer or provide through it. To allow you to participate in interactive features on our Website. In any other way we may describe when you provide the information. For any other purpose with your consent. We may also use your information to contact you about our own and third-parties' goods and services that may be of interest to you. If you do not want us to use your information in this way, please check the relevant box located on the form on which we collect your data (the registration form) or adjust your user preferences in your account profile.

The technologies we use for this automatic data collection may include:

Disclosure of Your Information. We may disclose aggregated information about our users, and information that does not identify any individual, without restriction. We may disclose personal information that we collect or you provide as described in this Privacy Policy: To our subsidiaries and affiliates. To contractors, service providers, and other third parties we use to support our business and who are bound by contractual obligations to keep personal information confidential and use it only for the purposes for which we disclose it to them. To fulfill the purpose for which you provide it. For any other purpose disclosed by us when you provide the information. With your consent. We may also disclose your personal information: To comply with any court order, law or legal process, including to respond to any government or regulatory request. If we believe disclosure is necessary or appropriate to protect the rights, property, or safety of SIA Neuroart Lab, our customers, or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organizations for the purposes of fraud protection and credit risk reduction.

Choices About How We Use and Disclose Your Information We strive to provide you with choices regarding the personal information you provide to us. We have created mechanisms to provide you with the following control over your information:

Tracking Technologies You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when cookies are being sent. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of this site may then be inaccessible or not function properly.

Promotional Offers from the Company If you do not wish to have your e-mail address or contact information used by the Company to promote our own or third parties' products or services, you can opt-out by checking the relevant box located on the form on which we collect your data (the registration form) or at any other time by logging into the Website and adjusting your user preferences in your account profile by checking or unchecking the relevant boxes. If we have sent you a promotional e-mail, you may send us a return e-mail asking to be omitted from future e-mail distributions. This opt out does not apply to information provided to the Company as a result of a service purchase, service experience, or other transactions.

We do not control third parties' collection or use of your information to serve interest-based advertising. However, these third parties may provide you with ways to choose not to have your information collected or used in this way.

Accessing and Correcting Your Information If you delete your User Contributions from the Website, copies of your User Contributions may remain viewable in cached and archived pages, or might have been copied or stored by other Website users. In addition, we may provide aggregated statistical data to third-parties, including other businesses and members of the public, about how, when, and why users visit our website and services. This data will not personally identify you or provide information about your use of the Neuroart App or Website. We do not share your Personal Data with third parties for their marketing purposes without your consent.

Aggregated Data We may also share aggregated information (information about our users that we combine together so that it no longer identifies or references an individual user) and other anonymized information for regulatory compliance, industry and market analysis, demographic profiling, marketing and advertising, and other business purposes.

Monitoring We may monitor or record telephone calls, emails, web chat or other communications with you for regulatory, security, customer services or training purposes.

Your Rights You may exercise any of the rights described in this section before the respective Data Controller pursuant to the Legal Agreements by sending an email from your registered e-mail for Neuroart service to the respective Company providing the Service to you under the respective Legal Agreement stated below. Please note that we may ask you to verify your identity before taking further action on your request. Please note that upon receipt of your e-mail we shall try our best to provide you with the requested information and resolve your request in reasonable time, subject to all obligations which we or the related companies have under the applicable laws.

Managing Your Information You have the right to obtain the following:

Confirmation of whether, and where we are processing your Personal Data; Information about the purposes of the processing; Information about the categories of data being processed; Information about the categories of recipients with whom the data may be shared; Information about the period for which the data will be stored (or the criteria used to determine that period); Information about the existence of the rights to erasure, to rectification, to restriction of processing and to object to processing; Information about the existence of the right to complain to any regulator; Where the data was not collected from you, information as to the source of the data; and information about the existence of, and an explanation of the logic involved in, any automated processing; Additionally, you may request a copy of the personal data being processed. Rectification of Inaccurate or Incomplete Information You have the right to ask us to correct inaccurate or incomplete personal information concerning you (and which you cannot update yourself via your online access to your Online account).

Data Access and Portability You have the right to:

Receive a copy of your Personal Data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format that supports re-use; Transfer your Personal Data from one controller to another; Store your Personal Data for further personal use on a private device; and Have your Personal Data transmitted directly between controllers without hindrance. In some jurisdictions, applicable law may entitle you to request copies of your personal information held by us.

Data Retention and Erasure We generally retain your personal information for as long as is necessary for the performance of the contract between you and us and to comply with our regulatory obligations. If you no longer want us to use your information to provide the Neuroart

App or Website to you, you can request that we erase your personal information and close your Account, providing your Account is in good standing, not blocked or somehow limited for compliance, risk or regulatory reasons, or due to your outstanding obligation to us, court order, pledge or order by another regulator or other reason which prevents us by law to close your account or terminate the Service. Please note that if you request the erasure of your personal information:

We may retain some of your personal information as necessary for our legitimate business interests, such as fraud detection and prevention and enhancing security. For example, if we suspend your Account for fraud or safety reasons, we may retain certain information from that Account to prevent that client from opening a new Account in the future. We are also obliged to retain personal data which we have collected for the purposes of complying with the relevant anti-money laundering and anti-terrorism financing for a period as defined under the applicable law; We may retain and use your personal information to the extent necessary to comply with our legal obligations. Because we maintain the Neuroart App or Website to protect against accidental or malicious loss and destruction, residual copies of your personal information may not be removed from our backup systems for a limited period of time. Withdrawing Consent and Restriction of Processing Where you have provided your consent to the processing of your personal information by us, you may withdraw your consent at any time by changing your Online account settings or by sending a communication to us specifying which consent you are withdrawing. Please note that the withdrawal of your consent does not affect the lawfulness of any processing activities based on such consent before its withdrawal. Additionally, in some jurisdictions, applicable law may give you the right to limit the ways in which we use your personal information, in particular where (i) you contest the accuracy of your personal information; (ii) the processing is unlawful and you oppose the erasure of your personal information; (iii) we no longer need your personal information for the purposes of the processing, but you require the information for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims; or (iv) you have objected to the processing and the verification whether our legitimate grounds override your own is pending.

Objection to Processing In some jurisdictions, applicable law may entitle you to require us not to process your personal information for certain specific purposes (including profiling for marketing purposes) where such processing is based on a legitimate interest. If you object to such processing we will no longer process your personal information for these purposes unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for such processing or such processing is required for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims. Please note that Data Controllers which are regulated financial institutions, such as credit institutions, e- money institutions or similar are obliged under AML laws to make risk profiling of their customers upon opening of the relationship and constantly during the relationship and this is a legitimate reason. In case you do not wish us to process your personal data for certain specific purposes, which are legitimate purposes to us, you shall have to close your account or we may have to stop providing you some or all of the Services, subject to all conditions for the closing of the account, specified above in this Section.

Where your personal information is processed for direct marketing purposes, you may, at any time ask us to cease processing your data for these direct marketing purposes by sending an e-mail to the contact e-mails below.

Lodging Complaints You should in the first place try to resolve the matter by sending an e-mail to the respective Data Controller under this Operating Globally To facilitate our global operations, we may be required to transfer, store, and process your information with service providers based in Europe, India, Asia Pacific and North and South America. Laws in these countries may differ from the laws applicable to your Country of Residence. For example, information collected within the EEA may be transferred, stored, and processed outside of the EEA for the purposes described in this Data Protection and Confidentiality Policy. Where we transfer store and process your personal information outside of the EEA we have ensured that appropriate safeguards are in place to ensure an adequate level of data protection.
